

Mounting Clamp

In order to hold the actuator assembly, we have developed a special Aluminum Mount. This is a precision-made product which now incorporates a double bearing for smooth trouble-free operation. Since the selector pedal follows a shallow arc over the range of its movement it is important that the actuator can swivel to follow this movement.